- to assess qualifications for a particular job or task, including decisions about promotions;
- to gather evidence for possible grievance or disciplinary hearings;
- to make decisions about your continued employment or engagement;
- to make arrangements for the termination of our working relationship;
- to deal with legal disputes involving you, or other employees, workers and contractors, including accidents at work;
- to ascertain your fitness to work;
- to manage sickness absence;
- to comply with health and safety obligations;
- to prevent fraud;
- for equal opportunities monitoring.

KEEPING YOUR DETAILS UP TO DATE

SCS always endeavour to make sure that the information we hold about you is accurate and up to date. If you have a change of name and/or contact details, please contact us on seaxe@hotmail.co.uk or call us on 07957 321092.

RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will retain your personal information only for as long as it is required for the purposes for which it was collected, until the expiry of any certification or as required to do so by law. Our retention period will be 5 years. Where data is required to be kept after this time, it will be stored by encrypted backup.

RIGHTS IN RELATION TO YOUR INFORMATION

You may have certain rights in relation to the personal information we hold about you. In particular, you may have a right to:

- request a copy of personal information we hold about you;
- ask that we update the personal information we hold about you, or correct such personal information that you think is incorrect or incomplete;
- ask that we delete personal information that we hold about you, or restrict the way in which we use such personal information;
- object to our processing of your personal information; and/or
- withdraw your consent to our processing of your personal information (to the extent such processing is based on consent and consent is the only permissible basis for processing).

If you would like to exercise these rights, please email: seaxe@hotmail.co.uk

ACCESS DATA REQUESTS

Where any subject access requests are received SCS will respond within one month of your request. SCS will require evidence to be able to confirm your identity. SCS will require that the person requesting access of their personal data attends the offices of SCS in person with a copy of their photographic ID, to confirm identity. The relevant contact details will be established at this time to enable SCS to issue the personal data.

OUR COMMITMENT TO DATA SECURITY

To prevent unauthorised access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the personal information we collect.

Our computers can only be accessed by inputting the user name and password, we have firewall subscriptions in place that monitors and controls incoming and outgoing network traffic and we have malware security in place that scans for viruses and blocks dangerous files. Only encrypted memory sticks are used to hold the backups of our data.

Any hard copies of personal data will be kept in locked cabinets i.e. personnel files.

Although we use appropriate security measures once we have received your personal data, the transmission of data over the Internet (including by e-mail) is never completely secure. We endeavour to protect personal data, but we cannot guarantee the security of data transmitted to or by us.

Any personal information you give to us will only be used by SCS and by its controllers or processors and service providers. We do not sell or share personal information with third parties unrelated to it. We do not collect more information than we need to fulfil our stated purposes and will not retain it for longer than is necessary.

We have contracts in place with our data controllers and processors. This means that they cannot do anything with your personal information unless we have instructed them to do it. They will not share your personal information with any organisation apart from us. They will hold it securely and retain it for the period we instruct.

PERSONAL DATA BREACH

A personal data breach can be broadly defined as a security incident that has affected the confidentiality, integrity or availability of personal data. A personal data breach will occur whenever any personal data is lost, destroyed, corrupted or disclosed; if someone accesses the data or passes it on without proper authorisation; or if the data is made unavailable, for example, when it has been encrypted, or accidentally lost or destroyed.

Where a security incident takes place SCS will quickly establish whether a personal data breach has occurred and, if so, promptly take steps to address it.

SCS will establish the likelihood and severity of the resulting risk to the subject's rights and freedoms. If it is likely that there will be a risk the breach will be reported to the ICO within 72 hours after becoming aware of the breach.

Where a breach is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals, SCS will inform the individual directly without undue delay.
